INTRODUCTION

18

1. Plaintiff PETER GEORGIEV is the owner of real property located in Santa Clara County, California, at 960 Leo Drive, in the City of San Jose, APN 381-12-033 (the "Property"). On information and belief, Defendant LAWRENCE STONE ("Stone") is the County Assessor acting on behalf of Santa Clara County; Stone is sued in individual and official capacities. Defendants have failed and refused to reassess the property at its proper value after improvements.

2. Defendants acted to deny Plaintiff statutory rights, and have done so willfully, in retaliation for Plaintiff's exercise of his First Amendment right to petition for redress of grievances, and denying Plaintiff the right to refunds and to appeal Defendants' reassessment.

 COMPLAINT FOR RELIEF IN THE NATURE
 OF MANDAMUS AND FOR DAMAGES

Jefferson v. Stone, et al. (No. C-07

-1-

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

2 3. This is an action brought under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for mandatory injunctive relief, to 3 recover damages, and for disgorgement against Defendants for (a) violation of Plaintiff's rights
4 of property and due process, guaranteed by the United States Constitution and laws enacted
5 thereunder; and, (b) retaliation for Plaintiff's exercise of his right to petition for redress of 6 grievances, guaranteed by First and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution

JURISDICTION

⁸ 4. The jurisdiction of this Court is predicated on 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1333.

INTRADISTRICT ASSIGNMENT

10 5. This matter has been filed in the Court's San Jose Division, pursuant to Civil L.R. 3-2

11 6. Plaintiff Georgiev is, and at all times mentioned in this complaint was, a citizen of the 12 United States.

13 7. A substantial part of the events giving rise to this action occurred in Santa Clara County, 14 California. Venue is therefore proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1331(b).

15 8. Defendant Stone was, at all times mentioned in this complaint, an agent of the County of 16 Santa Clara, employed as Assessor.

17 9. Defendant Stone was, at all times mentioned in this complaint, acting in the course and 18 scope of his employment with Defendant County of Santa Clara.

19 10. Defendant Stone was, at all times mentioned in this complaint, acting under color of state 20 law.

11. Defendant Stone is sued herein both in his official capacity and in his personal capacity.

22 12. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of Defendants sued as DOES 1
23 through 20, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will 24 amend this complaint to allege these defendants' true names and capacities when ascertained.

Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each fictitiously named defendant is responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that plaintiff's damages as herein alleged were proximately caused by the conduct of said fictitiously named defendants.

1 13. Defendants at all times herein mentioned were the agents and employees of, and
2 conspirators with, their co-defendants and in doing the things hereinafter alleged were acting
3 within the course and scope of such agency, employment and conspiracy and with the permission
4 and consent of their co-defendants.

HISTORY

6 14. On July 1, 1996, Stone assess taxes against Georgiev after improvements to the Property.
7 That revised tax amount was $1,058.25 semi-annually ($2,116.50 annually). Georgiev timely
8 paid the increased tax amount and applied for a refund of the over-payment. As of the date of 9 this complaint, Defendants still fail and refuses to issue a notice of reassessment of Plaintiff's
10 real property as of July 7, 1995, instead of December 31, 1996.

FACTS

12 15. This matter stems from the reassessment proceedings of the Property after Georgiev
13 made improvements which were substantially completed on July 7, 1995. Defendants claimed 14 the property should be reassessed as of December 31, 1996, a difference annually of $731 for 15 fiscal year ending June 30, 1997, plus interest.

16 Plaintiff appealed the decision by Defendants to the Santa Clara County Assessment
17 Appeals Board (AAB). The AAB essentially rubber-stamped the decision by Defendants.

18 17. Plaintiff filed claims with the Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors for refunds of 19 1995/1996, 1996/1997, and 1997/1998 real property taxes. The County Board of Supervisors
20 failed to act upon those claims.

18. Plaintiff filed an action in the Superior Court, County of Santa Clara, to challenge the validity of the assessment and to appeal from the AAB's decision, seeking remand to the AAB and a refund of over-paid taxes.

24 19. The State Court case, Georgiev v. County of Santa Clara, No. CV814565 (State Action), 25 was dismissed on summary judgment after motion by the defense.

26 20. In connection with making its motion for summary judgment, the defense in the State
27 Action submitted false and fraudulent materials intending to mislead and in fact misleading the Superior Court. Using the mail and other means of communication, on information and belief Defendants intended to commit tortious and fraudulent acts and in fact did commit said acts.

21. Plaintiff filed a protective appeal, Court of Appeal No. H029347. Based on the same false and fraudulent filings and errors in the record, the Court of Appeals affirmed the trial court's decision in the State Action.

22. Defendants are aware of the requirements to re-assess upon the date the property is functionally used or occupied, which in this case was July 7, 1995 [California Revenue & Taxation Code section 75(a)].

23. Defendants have a statutory duty to re-assess using the correct date of completion and to issue a Notice of Reassessment as of July 7, 1995. Defendants have failed to issue that notice and to re-assess using the correct date.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Deprivation of Rights of Property and Due Process Under Color of State Law)

24. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 23, as though fully set forth here.

25. This cause of action arises under the Civil Rights Act of 1871 (42 U.S.C.S. § 1983), as herein more fully appears.

26. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants Stone, Santa Clara County, and each of them, in doing all of the things herein mentioned acted under color of authority as such, and under color of the statutes, regulations, customs, and usages of the State of California and the Office of the Santa Clara County Assessor, and pursuant to the official policy of the Office of the Santa Clara County Assessor as created by Defendant Stone, the Santa Clara County Assessor, acting under color of his authority as such.

27. Defendants wrongfully invaded Plaintiff's property rights by unlawfully, wrongfully and contemptuously refusing to re-assess upon the correct date and to issue a notice of reassessment of the Property as of July 7, 1995, as required by California law.

COMPLAINT FOR RELIEF IN THE NATURE
OF MANDAMUS AND FOR DAMAGES

Jefferson v. Stone, et al. (No. C-07)

1 28. By reason of the above-mentioned conduct of defendant, Plaintiff was deprived of rights,
2 privileges, and immunities secured to him by the Constitution of the United States and laws
3 enacted thereunder, in that such conduct constituted an arbitrary intrusion by defendant upon the 4 security of Plaintiff's property and was not authorized by law and was beyond his authority, in 5 that the issuance of the notice of reassessment was required by California statute and was 6 specifically ordered in this case by a state court of competent jurisdiction, as described in greater
7 detail, supra. As a result of the above-described conduct, defendant deprived plaintiff of liberty
8 or property without due process of law.

9 29. As a result of such deprivations of his rights caused by the above-mentioned conduct,
10 Plaintiff is entitled to relief under Section 1983 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

11 30. As a further result of the acts of defendants, Plaintiff was subjected to humiliation and
12 indignity and has suffered, and continues to suffer, great mental pain and suffering, all to his
13 damage in an amount to be determined at trial.

14 31. As a further direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff has suffered,
15 and continues to suffer, the following special damages: injury to plaintiff's property, business,
16 trade, profession or occupation, all to his damage according to proof.

17 32. In acting as is alleged in this complaint, Defendant Stone has acted knowingly, willfully,
18 maliciously and oppressively, and with reckless and callous disregard for Plaintiff's federally
19 protected rights. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to exemplary and punitive damages.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Deprivation of Right to Petition for Redress of Grievances, Under Color of State Law)

23 33. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in 24 Paragraphs 1 through 32, as though fully set forth here.

25 34. In acting as alleged in this complaint, defendant was, and is, retaliating for Plaintiff's
26 exercise of his right to petition for redress of grievances, guaranteed by the First and Fourteenth 27 Amendments to the United States Constitution, violating that right.

1 35. As a further result of the acts of defendant. Plaintiff was subjected to humiliation and
2 indignity and has suffered, and continues to suffer, great mental pain and suffering, all to his
3 damage in an amount to be determined at trial

4 36. As a further direct and proximate result of defendant's actions, Plaintiff has suffered, and
5 continues to suffer, the following special damages: injury to Plaintiff's property, business, trade,
6 profession or occupation, all to his damage according to proof

7 37. In acting as is alleged herein, Defendant Stone acted knowingly, willfully, maliciously,
8 and oppressively, and with reckless and callous disregard for Plaintiff's federally protected
9 rights. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to exemplary and punitive damages.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Equal Protection Clause of the 14th Amendment)

42 USC §1983)

13 38. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in
14 Paragraphs 1 through 38, as though fully set forth here.

15 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants intentionally refused and refuses to 16 properly assess, or to re-assess, Plaintiff's property at the July 7, 1995, value as required by 17 California law.

18 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' conduct in this regard was irrational 19 and wholly arbitrary action, and was motivated solely by a spiteful effort to retaliate against 20 Plaintiff after Plaintiff's initial complaints and legal actions, and that Defendants acts in this
21 regard were for reasons wholly unrelated to any legitimate state objective.

22 41. As a result of such deprivations of his rights caused by the above-mentioned conduct,
23 Plaintiff is entitled to relief under Section 1983 of Title 42 of the United States Code

24 42. As a further result of the acts of defendants, Plaintiff was subjected to humiliation and
25 indignity and has suffered, and continues to suffer, great mental pain and suffering, all to his
26 damage in an amount to be determined at trial.

27 43. As a further direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff suffered, and 28

continues to suffer, the following special damages: injury to Plaintiff's property, business, trade, profession or occupation, all to his damage according to proof.

44. In acting as is alleged herein, Defendant Stone acted knowingly, willfully, maliciously, and oppressively, and with reckless and callous disregard for Plaintiff's federally protected rights. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to exemplary and punitive damages.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(RICO – 18 USC Section 1961, et seq.)

45. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 44, as though fully set forth here.

46. In doing the things alleged above, Defendants sought to continue to collect a debt or obligation that is unlawful: the collection of excess taxes on Plaintiff's real property. Plaintiff is informed Defendant Stone, as the County Assessor and as an employee of Santa Clara County, has received income derived directly from the unlawful taking.

47. In doing the things alleged above, Defendant Stone through a local government office engaged in a pattern of predicate acts using his offices as the requisite enterprise. By, inter alia, fraudulently concealing the real and appropriate value of the Property, by falsely claiming certain facts in the underlying State Action and AAB proceedings (deflecting litigation), and forcing Plaintiff to incur legal expenses and to pursue legal and equitable actions, Defendant's conduct rises to fraud and/or fraudulent concealment. The debt in the form of excess property taxes which Defendant seeks, through his office, to collect has been held in part to be unlawful yet Defendant continues to seek to collect said unlawful debt from Plaintiff through racketeering.

48. As a further direct and proximate result of defendant's actions, Plaintiff suffered, and continues to suffer, the following special damages: injury to Plaintiff's property, business, trade, profession or occupation, all to his damage according to proof.

49. Plaintiff is entitled to damages, trebled, and to attorneys' fees, under 18 USC §1964(c), according to proof.

1 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays judgment against Defendants for damages suffered, continues
2 to suffer and/or will suffer, as follows:

- 3 1. For a judgment declaring that the failure and refusal of defendant to issue a Notice of 4 Reassessment of the Property as of July 7, 1995, was, and is, arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of 5 discretion, contrary to the weight of the evidence and contrary to law;
- 6 2. That this Honorable Court issue an order requiring Defendant Stone, Assessor of Santa 7 Clara County, to issue a Notice of Reassessment of the Property as of July 7, 1995;
- 8 3. That Defendants be required to pay Plaintiff compensatory general and special damages 9 according to proof, including tax overpayments plus interest thereon;
- 10 4. That Defendant Stone be required to pay Plaintiff exemplary and punitive damages in an 11 amount to be determined;
- 12 5. That Defendants be required to pay to Plaintiff's attorney's fees pursuant to 42 USC 13 §1988(b), and/or 18 USC §1964(c);
- 14 6. For treble damages under 18 USC §1964(c);
- 15 7. That Defendants be required to pay to Plaintiff the cost of suit herein incurred; and
- 16 8. That Plaintiff have such other and further relief as the Court may deem proper.
